

The Stockade

Magazine of the Karori Historical Society

Author index

This index lists all the articles published in The Stockade alphabetically by the author of each article. This is followed by the title of the article, the issue number, the page numbers, and the date of publication. Titles under each author are in alphabetical order. Authors other than first authors are listed individually followed by a See or a See also reference to the main author.

Please note that online editions are available up and to 2018, but subsequent editions are only available to paid up members of the KHS.

Depending upon what version of Adobe Acrobat PDF viewer you have on your system:

The CTRL key and the F key pressed at the same time will bring up a Search dialogue function top right of your screen. Enter the word you wish to find then press ENTER and the next instance will be highlighted. Keep pressing ENTER to jump to further instances of the word.

At the top right are three full stops, one above each other. Click on these and a drop down menu will allow you to select two pages side by side.
